Mayor Pro Tem Carl Culpepper was absent
Other staff present was Administrator Lynn McEwen, Parks, Rec & Tourism Director James Anderson & Captain Jacob Watson

AGENDA OF SPECIAL MEETING

- Before any presentations were made, the Mayor requested that the Administrator provide the answers to the questions that had been proposed to the council at previous meetings. The Administrator read aloud the questions and answers to the questions. See attached sheet.
- Brandon Ingram, who has made several FOIA requests to the city about the Parks and Recreation Department, went over numerous findings and inconsistencies that he believes are warranted for continued discovery and investigation. After a long presentation of those issues (which included information on invoices and receipts, sponsors and donations, the actual FOIA requests, the equipment used in the program, and other issues during the season, the mayor thanked Ingram and others for bringing forth their concerns. The city will conduct thorough investigations on any areas that need improvement and make sure that transparency and the running of the city is always above the law.

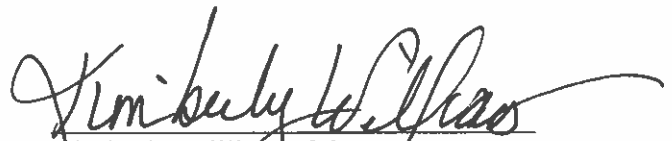

ADJOURNMENT: Councilwoman Elvira Johnson-Holly made a motion to adjourn the meeting. It was seconded by Councilwoman Geneva Jackson and unanimously approved.
